

AUDIENCE AT THE PALACE.

Address by the Hawaiian Consul for Tahiti.

His Majesty was pleased to grant an audience Thursday to Mr. J. T. Cognet, the Hawaiian Consul at Papeete, Tahiti. The gentleman was introduced by His Majesty's Vice Chamberlain, after which, by permission, Mr. Cognet addressed His Majesty as follows:

"Your Majesty: Under the commission of His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs of your Kingdom dated August 12, 1886, I have had the great honor to be called to the functions of Consul in the Society Islands, at Papeete, Island of Tahiti, French Establishment in Oceania, in the place of Hon. J. K. Sumner. Since that period, I have taken a lively interest in the affairs, politics and subjects of the Hawaiian Kingdom, the extent of which is increasing year by year. I have applied myself to the study of regular steam communication between this beautiful country of the Hawaiian Islands, called with so much reason 'The Paradise of the Pacific,' and the Society Islands, which are without doubt equally a true Paradise. The success of this scheme only depends upon Your Majesty should you believe it to be Your Majesty's duty to take it into consideration. I have for a long time, Your Majesty, sought for a favorable occasion to visit you to present to you my very humble respects and compliments: to-day Your Majesty that I have the honor to be presented officially, permit me to say to you that I am proud to represent your flag at Tahiti, and I profit by this circumstance to assure Your Majesty of my humble and modest services to contribute to the extent of my power as your Consul at Tahiti, to the greatest glory of Your Majesty, the prosperity of your beautiful country and the protection of all your subjects."

His Majesty expressed his satisfaction at the sentiments advanced, and the audience ended.

"MY MARYLAND" FEELS PROUD.

Honorable Mention of a Hero of the Samoan Disaster.

Commander Dennis W. Mullan, recently in command of the U. S. S. Nipsic (now in Honolulu) in a letter to the Annapolis city council of Maryland, expresses his thanks for the complimentary resolutions adopted by the board in recognition of his services at Samoa and says: "These resolutions, coming from my fellow citizens of the city of my nativity, shall be ever cherished by me as a valued token of their appreciation of my efforts to do simply my duty as an officer of the nation and as a citizen of this municipality."—[American paper.]

The presence in Baltimore yesterday of Commander Dennis W. Mullan, U. S. Navy, recalls the great Samoan disaster, in which the American men-of-war Trenton and Vandalia, and the Eber, Adler and Olga of the German fleet, were lost, with many lives. Commander Mullan, who is a native of Annapolis, was the only American officer who saved his ship, the Nipsic. Maryland has cause to feel proud of such a performance on the part of one of her sons, and similar achievements on sea and land have been appropriately recognized by the official action of her legislature. At Samoa Commander Mullan not only showed the qualities of a superior seaman and a courageous man, but for months his conduct of affairs at Apia had, previous to the disaster, prevented the German officials from gratifying their evident desire to appropriate the entire control of the island. With only the little Nipsic, surrounded by the much stronger war vessels of an unfriendly nation, he insisted that American rights should be respected, and succeeded in carrying his point. It is to be expected that he will receive some substantial reward from the Navy Department.—[Baltimore Sun, Aug. 2.]

A Monthly Social.

The parlors of the Central Union Church were filled Thursday evening with a gathering of the members of the church and their friends for the purpose of again engaging in the pleasant associations of the usual monthly social.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with greenery and palms, and a bower of choice flowers ornamented the centre of the auditorium. Bunches of choice exotics graced the grand piano and filled the air with their fragrance.

The special entertainment for the evening had been arranged by Mr. J. B. Atherton and consisted of: Vocal solo, "O Day of Bliss," Mrs. J. H. Paty; vocal solo, "The Two Grenadiers," Prof. A. D. Bissell; vocal solo, "He giveth his beloved sleep," Mr. Richards; recitation, "The Heroine," Miss Blanche Cornwell; reading, "The Tar Baby," from Uncle Remus, Mr. Willie Lewers. Each and every one of the numbers were well presented and received appropriate recognition.

After the musical and literary portion had ended, social converse was engaged in and an adjunct to the comforts of the occasion was presented in the shape of a light collation. The party separated about 9:30 p. m. bearing with them pleasant memories of the usual monthly social.

What Constitutes Bigamy?

An English court has at last settled a disputed point in the law governing bigamy. The wife in the case married one man in 1880 and a second five years later in the belief that the first husband was dead. The law requires the wife to wait seven years in the absence of proof that her husband has died and releases her at the expiration of that time after desertion without such proof if she does not know him to be alive. But in this case the wife had proof, which she believed, and married two years before the legal time of waiting had expired. The question then occurs if she is guilty of bigamy. Five of the Judges contended that she was and nine that she was not. The decision of the nine is the law, not only in this case, but in those that may come after.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

Miss Katie McGrew Entertains Her Friends.

A very pleasant occasion was the occurrence Thursday evening at the residence of Dr. J. S. McGrew, of a party given by Miss Katie McGrew in compliment to the friends who had called on her since her return from Paris. The affair was intended both as a conversation and dance party and the notable assemblage had opportunity to enjoy their bent in either particular. The large airy and brilliantly lighted parlors were filled during the early evening with a joyous communicative company while the devotees of Terpsichore found ample opportunity to engage in the mazes of the waltz, whirl of the schottische or less impulsive pleasures of the stately lancers in the dancing room where Prof. Felix Oliet presided at the piano. The programme of dances consisted of twelve numbers and included waltz, schottische, lancers and the much admired "York."

The many curios brought from Paris by the young hostess, engaged the attention of the guests, as also the valuable bric-a-brac, vases and rare drawings and paintings which adorned the walls. The brilliant company were right royally entertained, the resources of the caterer being called into requisition at an appropriate hour and the guests indulged in a repast which included the delicacies of the season. The party broke up a little after the midnight hour, their fair hosts being highly complimented on her performance of her pleasant duties.

Among the distinguished guests present were Admiral Kimberly and members of his staff, Captain Bishop of U. S. S. Iroquois, Captain Green of the U. S. S. Alert, Captain Coghlan of the U. S. S. Mohican, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Paty, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hatch and a number of other ladies and gentlemen.

A Royal Picnic.

H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani and a few of her friends enjoyed themselves yesterday morning by taking a trip to McGrew's station, the present terminus of the Oahu Railway and Land Co. A first-class coach was placed at her disposal and was well filled by Her Royal Highness and friends.

After arrival at Dr. McGrew's and when the party had tired themselves by strolling in the beautiful grove, a native feast was spread upon the grass and thoroughly enjoyed. Hawaiian melees were sung and every one of the party seemed to have enjoyed themselves. After the feast Her Royal Highness directed one of her attendants to plant three rose apple banana trees and a branch of pomaria, and after this was done the party boarded the train and returned to Honolulu.

Among those present were: Mrs. Bush, Mrs. Brickwood, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. J. A. Cummins, Mrs. Stillman, Mrs. P. K. Clark, Mrs. Manaka, Mrs. Levi, Mrs. McGuire, Mrs. Auld, Mrs. C. H. Clark, Mrs. Drew, Mrs. Howland, Mrs. Davis, Mr. W. P. Toler, Mr. Allan Herbert, Mr. C. H. Clark.

Henry Smith esq., secretary of the Honolulu Fire Department has sent written notices to the foreman of each company requesting the forwarding to headquarters, not later than the 10th inst. lists of fifty members from each company, so as to enable him to prepare the official list of voters at the coming elections for engineers of the Department. In this regard it is proper to mention that the hours for voting on the election day, December 2d, are from 6 to 9 p. m.

BALL ON THE MOHICAN.

A Fashionable Gathering and Enjoyable Occasion.

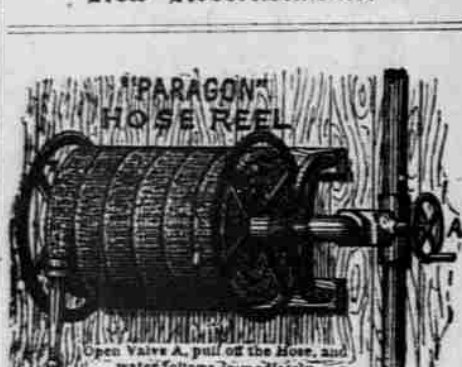

The invitation extended by the Admiral and officers of the U. S. Flagship Mohican, inviting a large number of the community to share the pleasures of a dance party on board the Flagship on Wednesday last was the occasion of bringing together a representative gathering of Honolulu society. Boats were at the landing to convey guests to the vessel and the trips to and fro were most pleasurable.

On board, a surprise greeted the visitors, the grim visages of war and usual accompaniments of a battle-ship, were covered with the peaceful indices of agriculture, coconut leaves and branches and palm fronds being interlaced, and overhead an awning of various colored bunting added to the scene. Three playful parrots being onlookers of the throng. The officers were aided in doing the honors of receiving their guests by Madames Rand, Hannum, and Menefee.

The invitations were over two hundred in number and nearly all those invited were present. The dances twelve in number were tripped by the merry throng to the music of Berger's band. During an interval a collation was served.

The party broke up a few minutes past 5 o'clock returning to town again by means of the ship's steam launches. Among those present were His Majesty, Admiral Kimberly and staff, captain and officers of the Espiegle, members of the diplomatic and consular corps, of the bench, bar and of the wealth and intelligence of the community.
